Preface:

My People Are Destroyed From A Lack Of Knowledge

PART ONE:

A People Without Understanding Will Come To Ruin

I Proclaim What Is Certain
And None Of Them Calls On Me
You Have Eaten The Fruit Of Deception
They Cling To Deceit; They Refuse To Listen
A Chasing After The Wind
The Truth Will Set You Free

PART TWO:

There Is No Faithfulness, No Love, No Acknowledgment Of God In The Land

They Consult A Wooden Idol And Are Answered By A Stick
I Will Plant Her For Myself In The Land
Ephraim Is Joined To Idols; Leave Him Alone!
And Breasts That Are Dry
A Spirit Of Prostitution Leads Them Astray
Their Children To The Slayer
A City Of Wicked Men
And The Fish Of The Sea Are Dying
The Stalk Has No Head; It Will Provide No Flour
A Child Without Wisdom
They Break All Bounds, And Bloodshed Follows Bloodshed
Their Rulers Dearly Love Shameful Ways

PART THREE:

Where Is Your King, That He May Save You?

Until They Admit Their Guilt
They Sow The Wind And Reap The Whirlwind
For I Am God, And Not Man
I Will Love Them Freely

I write this manuscript not to add anything to the word of God. The word of God stands on its own, and no man can add to, nor subtract from its eternal truths. It is my purpose solely to make known what the word of God says regarding several key issues of the day. These issues, it seems, rather than hinging upon the timeless and inerrant word of God, are being fully defined by a secular world view entirely hostile and opposed to anything even remotely associated with the God of the Bible.

I am also not writing this manuscript in the hope that it may persuade the nonbeliever who denies the authority of Scripture. While I believe it is our duty and privilege as Christians to make known the true and complete word of God to all the world, I've written this book explicitly for those who claim to rest in that living truth.

As such, I write this manuscript for those who do believe in the divine inspiration, infallibility, inerrancy and complete, unchanging authority of the word of God. Many claim such beliefs, yet are ignorant of what the Scriptures actually say; they are familiar with only select portions, or are uncertain regarding God's views on specific issues as the Bible does not address these issues topically.

It is therefore my desire to expose those who claim to speak for God, yet do so in blatant, often blasphemous contradiction of His holy word. With so many conflicting messages directed our way, it is essential that we, as believers, are able to discern the truth, learning to lean on the perfect Creator rather than the imperfect and sinful creation. As the writer of Proverbs said: Trust in the LORD with all your heart, And lean not on your own understanding. (Proverbs 3:5)

We are to look into God's word for ourselves and not rely on what any man or any church tells us God says. As the Apostle Paul wrote to the believers in Galatia: I marvel that you are turning away so soon from Him who called you in the grace of Christ, to a different gospel, which is not another; but there are some who trouble you and want to pervert the gospel of Christ. But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed. (Galatians 1:6-9)

Thirdly, I am writing this manuscript as neither an endorsement nor a disapprobation of the law God gave to Israel through Moses. It is clearly not my place to do so. I quote from this law in several instances throughout this manuscript as God has seen fit to include it in His holy word. That it was initially intended for His people, Israel, under the government that He established for them is clear. How it may apply to us today, is not.

At very least, the law God gave to Israel through Moses clearly demonstrates the LORD God's attitude regarding certain offenses and the perpetrators, thereof. As the LORD God does not change His mind (chiefly I Samuel 15:29), it would be wise to infer that His attitude in these matters, also has not changed. That we are no longer slaves of unrighteousness through the law, but saved by grace through faith, apart from the works of the law, is also clear from Scripture, and I find no contradiction between the two.

Now, it may seem to some that I tend to stress God's holiness, wrath and justice while, in comparison, somewhat neglect to mention His love, mercy and forgiveness. This is not to paint a lopsided portrait of God, as both sides are equally important and true. However, as the purpose of this manuscript is to expose the liberal lies -- chief of which is this image of the "old grandfather" or "Santa Claus" god -- I underscore the side of God's character which liberals deny.

In closing, I ask readers not to rely on what is written herein, but to search for themselves, the living and true word of God as spoken through His prophets, the apostles, and His Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ. For it is only through such in-depth, personal study of His word that we can come to know Him and His direction for our lives.
